MANATEES EDGE PESKY METS—BUMS BREAK TIE TO BEAT BANDITS ISLANDERS, SUGAR KINGS AND THUNDER SCORE VICTORIES

◆ 18AAA-AA INTER DIVISION

Elmo's Rock Bar & Grill

HIBBS FANS NINE

Manatees 4
 Mets 2

Two teams that played in Spring title games in their respective divisions met for the first time ever, and while AAA Manatees won the game, the AA Mets gave them a good battle. Little Fenway Park with its Green Monster Wall, was the locale and both teams (each 1-1) came away with something to build on. The Manatees banged out 15 hits, yet scored only four runs off Ryan Romero (8IP). Anthony Gutilla (1IP) held them scoreless. The Manatees left twelve men on base, though. The Mets had several rallies, getting eight hits off three Manatees' pitchers, but came up short. They got to 3-2 on Rob Romero's RBI double in the 7th, but the Manatees added one of their own in the top of the 8th on back to back doubles by Adam Romer, his second, and winning pitcher Steven Hibbs. The Mets loaded the bases off closer Jackson Yedy, but failed to score in the bottom of the 8th. The Mets had one final shot in the 9th. Chad Webster led off with a single, but Yedy picked up the save with a pop up and two K's. Six Manatees had two hits each. Romer's two doubles, drove in two runs. Hibbs had a single, double and two RBI's. Brian Fitzsimmons, Drew Davis (double), David Machado and manager Rob Wiley each had two hits; Francisco Rosario, Edgar Tovar and Mike Wood had one each. Webster and Ben Shuffrain had two hits each, with Shuffrain getting an RBI for the Mets. Luke Kutsukos, Hector Gerena, Tommy Smith and Rob Romero (double, RBI) all had hits. Hibbs (1-0, 5IP, 4H, 1R, 9Ks) got the win. Martin Nolasco (2IP, 3H, 1R) and Yedy (2IP, 1H, 3BB, 3Ks, save) Ryan Romero allowed all four runs and fourteen hits. Gutilla gave up a hit and had one strikeout in pitching the last inning.

DAVE SALLEY FOUR HIT GAME

Beach Bums 7 Bandits 5

The Beach Bums broke a 5-5 tie with two late runs to nip the Bandits at Santaluces. It was a case of "follow the leader" for the Beach Bums, as skipper Dave Salley had four hits out of the number two slot in the batting order. That set things up for Ryan Togher in the three hole. Togher had an RBI double and a two run single. William Kane had two doubles and drove in a run, and Rick Schnur had an RBI singles. Michael Nast and Austin Smith each had a single. Paul Chasse and Curt Rapp had RBIs, both on fielder's choices. The Beach Bums used three pitchers—Schnur for three, Tim Thornton (2-0) for four innings and Chasse for two to earn a save. Kevin Naranjo and Evan D'Angelo had two hits apiece for the Bandits, with five others getting one apiece. Josh Broadwater, Taylor McInnis, Juan Yambo, Miguel Gonzalez and Christian Perez all had one base knock each. D'Angelo (0-1) took the loss. He pitched six innings of relief after starter Alec Vargas went the first three.

◆ 18AA DIVISION

Thunder 14
Brooklyn
Cyclones 4

EMERGENCY START FOR ERIC

The Thunder led all the way at Santaluces, but it wasn't as easy as the score would indicate. The T-Men led by only two runs, 6-4 until the 7th inning when they made it a four run margin at 8-4, then broke it open with a six run 8th inning that featured some loosedefense by the Cyclones. It was the Thunder's first win under new manager Eric Morales, who also pitched nine innings for the win. Morales came on to relieve starter Landy Medina, who gave up a hit and a walk, then encountered arm problems and left the mound. Morales came on, went the remaining nine innings, giving up seven hits and three earned runs. He walked two and struck out nine. Morales also banged out three hits and drove in two runs. Luis Martinez also had three singles and drove in a run, and Dargel Gomez had three hits, including a double and drove in two. Greg Nicholson had a double to drive in two runs, and Eric Gormley had a single and wound up scoring four runs. The Cyclones posted some good numbers as well. Octavio Rodriguez led the way with a double and two singles. Eric Felt had an RBI triple and a single, Juan "Twin" Arroyo collected a pair of singles and drove in one run, and Wade Laschell had a pair of singles. Jason Tooker had an RBI double, Carlos Sotolongo also had a two bagger and manager Nelson Ortiz had a single. The loss went to Adan Herrera (0-1), who pitched the first six innings. Mike Bernier worked the last two.

◆ 18AA DIVISION

Sugar Kings 10 Blades 3

The Sugar Kings evened their record at 1-1, and handed the Blades their second loss in as many games, in an afternoon game at Santaluces. Oscar Bencomo (1-0) pitched eight innings for the win, scattering ten hits and fanning five. Only one of the three runs was earned. Tony Rodriguez led an eleven hit offense with three hits and a run driven in. Ramon Serpa continued his hot hitting, collecting two more hits and driving in two runs. He has had five hits in the first two Sugar Kings' games. Manager Joe Perez also had a multihit game, with a pair of singles and an RBI. Yandry Cabrera, Nestor Sanjurjo and Eddy Sanchez each had RBI singles, and Raiko Ramos added one base hit. Sanjurjo pitched the final inning, allowing two hits, but striking out two. Blades' manager Yordany Martinez led his team with three hits. William Ramos had two hits and knocked in two runs, and Yurien Escalona also had two safeties. Eduardo DelToro had a triple, Carlos Jimenez an RBI double, and Yosvani Garcia, Felix Armas, Brian O'Farrell and Lazaro Diaz contributed one hit apiece. Junior Gasquez (0-1) went the distance for the loss. He gave up ten hits, walked three, hit three batters and had three strikeouts. Gasquez was given his requested release by the Cyclones, for whom he pitched in relief on opening day, October 11, to rejoin the Blades in time for Sunday's Blades' game, as they dropped to 0-2. The victory went to Ryan Johnson (1-0). He went the last 2 2/3 innings, giving up one hit, walking one and striking out seven.

VINNY'S
RBI HIT
PLATES
WINNING RUN

Vinny Intagliata's 9th inning single scored Perry Adair with the deciding run as the Islanders won a seesaw affair against the Royals. The game winning hit broke a 7-7 tie after the Royals had pulled even with a run in the bottom of the 8th. Starting pitcher Cody Manning had four hits for the Isles, including a double, and drove in two runs. Ryan Johnson had a double and single and Adair two singles. Skipper Shaun Gullett had one hit, Intagliata one and Ray Jimenez a sacrifice fly. Manning pitched the first five innings. His line was four runs, one hit, four walks, six strikeouts. He left with a 5-4 lead, but wound up with a no decision. Tony Amatucci pitched one scoreless inning and Lopez yielded three hits and two runs in a third of an inning. The victory went to Ryan Johnson (1-0), the fourth Islanders pitcher. He went the last 2 2/3 innings, giving up one hit, walking one and striking out seven. For the Royals, Donnie Teachman had a double, single and two runs batted in, and Jahmal McCleary had two singles. Mike Roy had a double and drove in two runs, Rob Petite and manager Papo Torres (RBI) each had one hit. Teachman pitched the first six (five runs, three unearned, six strikeouts, no decision). Matt Zelgowitz pitched an inning and surrendered two runs, and Jose Abreu (0-1) suffered the loss, giving up the winning run, which was unearned. The Islanders improved to 2-0, while the Royals are 1-1 after the first two weeks.

The National office is seeking two more teams for it's 18+ division, and is offering a sweetheart of an offer— A TEAM FEE OF $1,500 FOR THE 18+ DIVISION. THE 28+ DIVISION IS FULL.

The individual fee, at this time, would normally be $180 per player, which would make the fee for a team of 15 or more players—$2700.
