

Awards will be announced at the annual banquet on March 8th

Section 1.01 James Whiteside Memorial Award

This award is given in memory of James Whiteside to the most coachable house league Squirt player. The player's name is engraved on a large memorial plaque and a small plaque is given to the player to keep.

Section 1.02 Brian Callaway Memorial Award

Brian Callaway was a young man who began playing hockey in kindergarten and continued playing as a young adult. He was admired and respected by his friends and coaches, for his determination to succeed. Upon his death, his parents set up a memorial to him, which would be awarded to an outstanding goalie in the PeeWee division. The goalie's name is engraved on a large memorial plaque and a smaller individual plaque is given to the player to keep.

Section 1.03 Len Andreason Memorial Award

This award is given in memory of Len Andreason to a referee and/or coach who exhibits high ideals on and off the ice. The recipient's name is engraved on a large memorial plaque and a smaller plaque is given to the recipient to keep.

Section 1.04 Al Munn "Mr. Hockey" Award

This award is given to an individual who has donated many hours either on or off the ice to the hockey program. The individual's name is engraved on a large memorial plaque and the recipient receives a smaller plaque to keep.

Section 1.05 Rollie Defenbaugh Memorial Award

Rollie was a person who spent many hours teaching Mini-Mites the basics of hockey. This award was established in his memory and is awarded to the Mini-Mite coach who exhibits Rollie's dedication to these beginning skaters. The coach's individual name is engraved on a large memorial plaque and a smaller plaque is given to the coach to keep.
