Longstreth/NFHCA Division I All-America Team Announced

CHANDLER, Ariz. – The Longstreth/National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA) Division I All-America Team was announced on Wednesday with 48 student-athletes earning first, second or third-team recognition.

The list included 13 student-athletes who made the All-America Team for at least the second time. Albany senior Paula Heuser capped her career with a fourth-consecutive All-America selection, and third straight on the first team. Virginia junior Tara Vittese was selected to the first team for the third year in a row, while seniors Esmee Peet (Delaware), Anna Middendorf (Connecticut) and Natalie Cafone (Iowa) also earned a third All-America nod. Virginia senior Lucy Hyams and Connecticut junior Charlotte Veitner each made the first-team All-America list for the second year in a row, while others who earned a second straight All-America honor were graduate student Welma Luus (Maryland), seniors Kate Barber (Indiana) and Julia Young (North Carolina), juniors Laura Hurff (Syracuse) and Alexa Hoover (Penn) and sophomore Ayeisha McFerran (Louisville).

Connecticut, Syracuse, Maryland and North Carolina led all schools with three selections apiece, with both the Huskies and the Orange placing a pair on the first team. Both of Virginia's honorees were first-team selections, while others with a pair of All-Americans included national champion Delaware, Duke, Boston College, Albany, Louisville, Penn State, Harvard and Stanford. An additional 18 schools had one All-America selection as a total of 31 teams were represented.

The All-America Team included 23 seniors or graduate students, 14 juniors, eight sophomores and three freshmen among the 48 honorees.
